To search census or war records:

- In the Surname box, type the last name of a person.
- In the Given Name box, type the first name of the person.
- Select a state, census year or branch of the service
- Click the Search button

To search book/magazine records:

- Click on the Search PERSI bar on the HeritageQuest home page.
- Choose whether you want to search for a particular person, place or publication
- Fill in the names or titles and click the Search button.

Note: For more advanced searching, click the Advanced Search tab.

This will provide you with search boxes for county, age, gender, race and birthplace.
